relating to the construction of bazaar sheds in the Basavanpudi extension are put up (received with D no. 553 of 11.7.1913) as directed in para 9.

14 The grain bazaar sheds in Basavanpudi were constructed by the P. & O. in 1898 at an estimated cost of Rs 5200/- from the P. & O. funds on the outbreak of plague with the object of affording facilities for merchants who wished to remove themselves to the extension to pursue their trade. This failed in its object & as an attempt was made to sell the building. As the offers of Messrs Bond Contractor Sannappa & Messrs K. V. S. Murthy for Rs 1850, Rs 2300 & Rs 1200 respectively were very low now located and cause the needful extensions and alterations to be made thereto to suit the purposes of a veterinary Hospital

2 In these circumstances, Government direct that a practical scheme be worked up and submitted by the Revenue Commissioner and that till then in consultation with the Sanitary Commissioner and the Chief Engineer for the location of the Hospital and that till then the proposed shifting of the Hospital to the grain market be held in abeyance.

3 The President of the Bangalore City Municipality is requested to consider the desirability of improving the grain market and of acquiring if necessary the adjoining sites so as to render it suitable for the purpose for which it was originally intended and obtain the orders of Government separately in the matter.

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to the last para of the Government Proceedings No. R. 2650-3/Agri. 95-11-8 dated 15-11-1912 calling for a report as to the desirability of improving the Grain Market in Basavangudi, I have the honor to state that it does || not seem necessary now to improve the present building. Enquiry shows that the sites surrounding the grain bazaar have already been sold to various persons intending to build houses in that locality and some houses have already sprung up.

2 Steps have been taken to allow a part of the building being used temporarily for the " Sarada Sadan Patasala " girls school of Basavangudi, as per Council's resolution dated 22nd February 1913. Copy of which is enclosed.
